

Indigenous Perspectives on the Sacred
An Evening of Storytelling and Music
Friday, August 30, 7-9 pm

At the Indianapolis Bahá'í Center
3740 W 62nd St, Indianapolis, IN 46268

“The world of humanity is like a tree,
the nations or peoples are the different limbs or branches...
and the individual human creatures are as the fruits and blossoms thereof.” --Abdu'l-Bahá

The Wisdom of the Sacred is often passed down by our elders through stories, told to guide our community, our children, and our grandchildren.

We welcome you as members of one human family to listen to stories told and songs sung by our Indigenous brothers and sisters.

Excerpt from a Cherokee prayer...

Peace and happiness are available in every moment.
Peace is every step. We shall walk hand in hand.
